Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Richard Deuter is retiring from his position as Conservation Technician for Region I for the Department of Game, Fish and Parks, having begun his career 31 years ago in 1956; and,

WHEREAS, Richard's dedicated service to the state of South Dakota has provided enjoyment to the sportsmen in the fisheries field; and,

WHEREAS, Richard's loyalty to the department of Game, Fish and Parks, its employees and its programs has always been accomplished in a professional manner; and,

WHEREAS, Richard has been a inspiration to his many friends by being a wonderful husband for his wife, Violet, and a loving parent for their four children; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper to gather to honor and give thanks to Richard; and,

WHEREAS, It is also fitting and proper that the citizens of the great state of South Dakota recognize this special occasion and honor Richard H. Deuter:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 9, 1987, as in South Dakota, and I personally commend and salute Richard for diligently pursuing the elusive relationship between wildlife and man.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Governor's Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Third Day of June, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Seven

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

THOMAS G. LECKEL, DEPUTY SECRETARY OF STATE
